Withdrawal of the SEL Guideline for the Management of Gout in Primary Care (originally published January 2022)

The SEL Guideline for the Management of Gout has been retired and withdrawn due to the availability of national resources to guide treatment. These include a guideline from the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE) and a NICE Clinical Knowledge Summaries (CKS) topic on gout.

Please also refer to the enhanced formulary entry for colchicine, which includes additional, off-label dosing information. The formulary entry can be accessed in the SEL adult Joint Medicines Formulary here
