

Engagement Assurance Committee Cover Sheet

Item: 3

Enclosure: C

Title:	Pilot approach to recognising involvement
Meeting Date:	22 May 2024
Author:	Rosemary Watts, Assistant Director of Engagement
Executive Lead:	Ranjeet Kaile, Director of Communications and Engagement

Purpose of paper:	This paper sets out a pilot approach for recognising involvement of local people in the work of NHS South East London for the committee to discuss before being presented at the Finance and Planning Sub Committee.			Update / Information	X
				Discussion	X
				Decision
Summary of main points:	The approach sets out three levels of engagement activity and proposes that people can claim a fee for engagement activity at level 3. The paper outlines a process for determining whether proposed engagement activity is at level 3 and a process for members of the public to claim.
Potential Conflicts of Interest	Members of the committee will be able to claim the recognising involvement fee once the approach has been approved by the ICB.
Relevant to the following Boroughs	Bexley	X	Bromley	X
	Greenwich	X	Lambeth	X
	Lewisham	X	Southwark	X
	Equality Impact	The approach aims to enable inclusion of people in ICB projects of people from more marginalised communities.
	Financial Impact	A budget of £25,000 has been agreed to pilot the approach in 2024/25
Other Engagement	Public Engagement	The paper outlines an approach which will enable further ICB public engagement.
	Other Committee Discussion/ Engagement	Discussions at the ICS Engagement Practitioners' Network.
Recommendation:	The committee is asked to read the report and discuss the approach for further clarification and refinement before the paper is discussed at the Finance and Planning Committee.				